3. HOW WE PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL DATA

A.N.M.E.Z. S.A. treats the security of your personal data very seriously. We do our best to protect your personal data from abuse, interference, loss, unauthorized access, modification or disclosure.

The measures we use include implementing appropriate access controls, investing in the latest information security capabilities, and ensuring that personal data is encrypted and rendered anonymous, wherever possible.

Access to your personal data is only allowed to our employees and associates, as well as to the Ministry of Shipping and Island Policy / Coast Guard Headquarters (Presidential Decree 102/2019 - FEK 182 / A / 20-11-2019) only when required and subject to strict contractual confidentiality obligations when processed by third parties.

4. HOW LONG WILL WE KEEP YOUR DATA

We will keep your personal data for as long as necessary for the purpose for which it is processed.

We keep the identifiable data we collect directly for targeting purposes for as little time as possible, and then we use measures to permanently delete them.

We actively look at the personal data we have and delete it in a safe way, or in some cases render it anonymous when there is no legal or business need to keep it.

Regardless of how we process your data for the time strictly necessary to achieve the intended purpose, we will then keep it properly stored and protected for the length of time that processing could arise, in accordance with the legislation in force. Once passed the period of limitation for all claims will proceed to delete personal data.

5. WHAT YOUR RIGHTS ARE WHEN MAKING YOUR DATA AVAILABLE TO US

Here are described your rights with respect to your personal data and how they are processed. You can exercise these rights at any time. Below we provide a preview of these rights along with what this implies for you. You can exercise your rights by sending an email to dpo@anmez.gr or submitting a request through the contact form on our website.

- The right to information. You have the right to receive clear, transparent and comprehensible information about how we use your personal data and rights. We therefore provide you with the information in this Statement.
- The right to access and correction. You have the right to access, correct or update your personal data at any time. We understand the importance of this and if you want to exercise your rights, please contact us.
- The right of data portability. The personal data you have given us is portable. This means that they can be moved, copied or transferred electronically under certain conditions.
- The right to erase (right to be forgotten). Under certain circumstances, you have the right to ask us to delete your data. If you want to delete the personal data we have, please let us know and we will take appropriate steps to respond to your request in accordance with legal requirements. If the personal data we collect is no longer needed for any purpose and does not oblige us to maintain them, we will do our best to erase or destroy them.
- The right to restriction of processing. Under certain circumstances, you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data.
- The right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. You have the right to complain directly to a local supervisory authority on how we process your personal data.
- The right to withdraw consent. If you have given your consent to anything concerning your personal data (i.e. we rely on your consent as the legal basis for processing your personal data), you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time (though if you do so, does not mean that what we have done to your personal data up to that point is illegal). You may withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data at any time by contacting us with the information provided below.

Further information and advice on your rights can be obtained from the Hellenic Data Protection Authority www.dpa.gr, Tel.: +302106475600, Fax: +302106475628, e-mail: contact@dpa.gr.

6. CHANGES IN PRIVATE POLICY

We may modify the information contained in this Privacy Policy, when we deem it necessary. When we publish changes to this statement, we will review the "Last Updated" date at the bottom of this Statement. If the changes are important, we will send you more visible statement. We will also keep previous versions of this Privacy Statement in a file for you to view, if you request it.

7. PROTECTIVE MEASURES

A.N.M.E.Z. S.A. is committed to ensure maximum security and confidentiality of data collected from the website.

The website uses the electronic security protocol Secure Sockets Layer (SSL). SSL uses methods for secure data exchange, establishing a secure Internet connection and preventing malicious actions. The browser used by the user informs him that he is on a secured website with the symbol of the SSL certificate and guarantees the secure exchange of data.

8. INFORMATION ON COOKIES

We use cookies to facilitate your browsing in the website, understand how you interact with us and, in certain cases, to be able to show you advertisements in accordance with your browsing habits. Please read our Information about Cookies to understand with greater detail the cookies that we use, their purpose and other information of interest.

Cookies are data files that a website sends to your computer when you browse the website. These data files include data that allow our website to remember important information that will make it more efficient and useful for you. Our website uses cookies for various purposes. We use cookie technology and IP addresses to obtain non-personal information about site visitors and to provide our visitors with the best personalized online experience.

Our website visitors use different web browsing software and different computers. In order to further facilitate your visits with the technology you use, we automatically record the browser type (e.g. Internet Explorer, Firefox) and the operating system (e.g. Windows, MacOS, Android) used by a visitor, as well as the name of the visitor's internet service provider. We also record the total number of visitors to our site in a cumulative way so that we can update and improve our site. This process does not export personal information. This data shows us whether more visitors prefer specific features or parts of the site than others, which helps us to keep our site up to date with new material that is of interest to most of our visitors.

9. Google Analytics

The website uses the Google Analytics statistical tool offered by Google. Google Analytics also uses cookies to compose reports for online activity and user preferences for the site. Google may transfer this information to third parties if legally required. It can also combine your IP address with other data stored by itself while browsing the web. By visiting the site, you agree to the management of your personal data by Google in the manner and for the reasons described above.
